“I have been coming to Breckenridge every summer since 1993. The beautiful scenery & soul-restoring time spent outdoors have a lot to do with that. But the real things that call me back year after year are the inspiring music-making and the many friends I’ve made among both supporters and fellow musicians.”

— Michael Linville, Artistic Partner of Chamber Music

Each summer 45 professional musicians from around the country gather in Breckenridge for four weeks of intensive rehearsals and Festival performances. Make a gift to help underwrite the costs of artist fees and housing while creating a lasting friendship with a Festival Orchestra musician. Musician sponsorship is a benefit for donors beginning in the Guarantor category.

While there are no formal expectations, sponsors tend to connect with their musician at least once per summer season for dinner, post-concert cocktails or an outdoor experience. Sponsors and musicians are invited to a welcome picnic at Carter Park during the opening week of the Festival.
