

BRECKENRIDGE MUSIC

Production Intern (3 available positions)

REPORTS TO: Production Director and Festival Stage Manager

THE OPPORTUNITY:

Designed to introduce all facets of production across performance platforms, this program includes familiarizing Interns with the Festival's operating procedures, advancing concerts and events, developing rapport with collaborators as well as providing support to Staff in all Festival activities. This role is an essential member of Production Team. NOTE: This is not a design internship.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Theatrical/Production experience, basic knowledge of orchestral layouts & staging, ability to interact effectively with other team members with a variety of personalities, attention to detail and the ability to function effectively in high-pressure environments is desired. Proficiency in Microsoft Office and Google Suite is helpful. Must be over 21. However, most important is an interest in growing your skill set and having a stellar attitude!

POSITION OVERVIEW:

- Assist in setting up and breaking down rehearsals, performances and events inside and outside of the Riverwalk Center (RWC). This includes providing the best possible working atmosphere for the musicians.
- Operate technical equipment during events, rehearsals and performances
- Drive large vehicles to transport equipment to off-site events and rehearsals related to the Festival
- Work flexible hours to be determined by the Stage Manager that include normal business hours, evenings, weekends and holidays
- Undertake special assignments and projects as directed - including assisting with scheduling, archiving Festival procedure, coordinating needs for Breck Music Presents and Festival events, rehearsals and concerts
- Learn, follow and enforce all Festival and RWC rules and regulations with regard to safety and equipment
- Attend weekly operations meetings
- Report to all work calls at the scheduled time. Please understand that transportation is not provided.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE TO BE ENHANCED AND DEVELOPED DURING INTERNSHIP:

- Instruction to basic stage lighting, audio and video projection (depending on programming)
- Familiarize candidate with Orchestral set up & operations as well as personnel needs
- Introduce candidate to the non-profit organizational structure

PHYSICAL AND WORKING DEMANDS:

The noise level in the work environment is usually mild to loud. The job will occasionally require Intern to lift, carry, move or push up to 50 pounds. A valid driver's license and the ability to function at the 9,600 ft. elevation of Breckenridge is required. Temperature levels may include hot, cold and mild for indoor and outdoor events.

PLEASE NOTE:

! The above is intended to describe the general content for this Internship - it is not to be interpreted as a comprehensive list of duties, responsibilities or requirements

! Intoxication will not be tolerated during work calls

COMPENSATION:

Interns will be provided fully furnished resort housing for the duration of the internship, as well as a weekly grocery stipend, college credit may also be available.

INTERNSHIP DATES:

Early July through mid-August 2019

APPLICATIONS AND DEADLINES:

To apply for the above listed position, please submit a cover letter and resume to Monica E. Soderman // Production Director at monica@breckenridgemusicfestival.com. For more information on the Festival, visit BreckenridgeMusic.org Application deadline is March 1, 2019.

ABOUT BRECKENRIDGE MUSIC

Breckenridge Music presents diverse and high-quality live music performances and broad-based community music education, serving upwards of 15,000 people annually. The flagship of Breckenridge Music, a three-week summer festival, is built upon the versatility of 46 professional musicians hailing from major orchestras across the country and the casual vibe of the Riverwalk Center, the Festival's mainstage venue. Also in the summer months, the Breckenridge Music Presents series brings in national touring acts to explore the wide world of music, including Jazz, Funk, Country, Folk, and Bluegrass, and the Champagne Series offers chamber music parties in private homes. In addition, Breckenridge Music's education and community engagement program shares the gift of music with the next generation of Summit County music lovers and their families, serving up to 5,000 Summit, Lake, and Park County students each year. This includes in-school performances, workshops and master classes as well as summer enrichment activities and an annual Free Family Concert for all ages.